

Contents

1. Introduction	9
1.1 Approaching the Topic.....	9
1.2 Setting the Scene.....	11
1.3 Acknowledgments.....	14
2. Definitions and Context	17
2.1 What is a Social Entrepreneur?.....	17
2.1.1 What is an Entrepreneur?	18
2.1.2 What is a Social Entrepreneur?	21
2.2 What is the Base of the Pyramid?	29
2.2.1 The Base of the Pyramid	30
2.2.2 The Dual Economy.....	34
2.2.3 The Subsistence Economy.....	35
2.2.4 The Informal Economy	38
3. Positioning This Research Within Existing Theory	41
3.1 The Research Gap	44
3.1.1 Entrepreneurship Research.....	44
3.1.2 Strategy Research	50
3.2 The Research Question	55
3.3 Theory	56
3.3.1 Confinement of Chosen Approach Against Other Approaches.....	56
3.3.2 Overview of the Resource-Based View	59
3.3.3 The Resource-Based Model of Entrepreneurship.....	65
4. Methodology	73
4.1 The Qualitative Research Paradigm.....	75

4.2 The Research Design	78
4.2.1 Selection of Research Objects	80
4.2.2 In-Depth Comparative Case Studies	84
4.2.3 Action Research	93
4.2.4 Interviews	95
5. Empirical Analysis	97
5.1 Background Information	97
5.1.1 Comparative Case Studies (WaterVenture & HanseHub).....	97
5.1.2 Action Research Case (Glovico)	111
5.1.3 Interviews (Ashoka Fellows).....	115
5.2 Propositions.....	118
5.2.1 Governance.....	118
5.2.2 Financial Resources.....	125
5.2.3 Human Resources.....	130
5.2.4 Social Resources.....	137
5.2.5 Environment	140
5.3 Comparing the Cases	142
5.4 Conclusion	146
6. Theory-Building and Discussion.....	149
6.1 Conception Stage	152
6.1.1 Difficulties in Finding Products and Services with Both Market and Social Potential	152
6.2 Acquisition Stage	155
6.2.1 Lack of Access to Funding and Adequate Design of Funding Structure.....	155
6.2.2 Lack of Supply Chains and Access to Goods.....	164
6.2.3 Lack of Heterogeneous Skill-Set & Human Resources	168
6.3 Governance Stage	175
6.3.1 Lack of Institutional Framework	175

6.3.2 Difficulties to Sustain the Market Ecosphere with Little Financial Incentives	178
6.4 Procedural Challenges.....	181
6.4.1 Complicated Registration Procedures and Arbitrary Authorities.....	183
6.4.2 Politicization.....	184
6.4.3 Committeezation	186
6.5 Conclusion	187
7. Outlook and Further Research.....	189
7.1 Wrap-Up.....	189
7.2 Key Insights	190
7.2.1 Differences Between Successful and Less Successful Social Entrepreneurs	190
7.2.2 Differences Between the Base and Top of the Pyramid.....	192
7.2.3 Methodological Insights	194
7.3 Further Research	195
7.3.1 Mixed Markets	195
7.3.2 Differences Between Social and “Classical” Entrepreneurs .	197
7.3.3 Barriers to Growth of Enterprises at the Base of the Pyramid.....	198
7.4 Implications for Practitioners.....	199
7.4.1 Implications for Institutions Intending to Support Social Entrepreneurs at the Base of the Pyramid.....	199
7.4.2 Implications for Companies Intending to Target the Base of the Pyramid.....	201
7.4.3 Implications for Social Entrepreneurs	204
7.5 Epilogue	205
Appendix.....	207
References.....	219